Outlined below are some examples of general feedback

One of the strongest aspects we noticed today was...

your Reasoning and Evidence. You had clear arguments that were supported by relevant examples and proof.

To strengthen your performances even more, we'd encourage you to...

continue working on your Organisation and Prioritisation by signposting your ideas and giving greater focus to your strongest arguments.

Overall, we were impressed by...

the way all teams demonstrated their ability to develop ideas, respond to others and communicate with confidence.

Schools Progressing

Check your briefing, as the number of teams progressing varies for each heat. Please ensure you have written the correct students' names for Performing Shakespeare. Consult your Competition Lead if you require any support
